PRIETA POST

Editor's Letter

This starts the club's 40th year and my second year as Editor. During this past year I worked at developing a new style for our publication after having looked at many newsletters from the other regions. I wanted to give the Prieta Post more magazine quality and style. In doing so I have been battling against a headwind as it takes a great deal of time, and as we found now creates additional expense. Producing the multi-page layouts consumes space by adding pages; also the postal regulations have changed during the year adding requirements for proper mailing, all causing additional expense. Key now is also that the printing of the Prieta Post is also dependant upon its size.

I am happy however to see that a majority of our participating member, the 30-40 that actually show-up at events, still like receiving the printer version. So, since we are going to continue to print and mail the Prieta Post the expense must be considered, an area where I have complete control. In that regard, limiting the size of the Prieta Post makes complete sense.

For 2010 the club and the individual members of LPR will be burdened with a couple of additional expenses, the 40th Anniversary Celebration, and in February LPR must host the PCA National President's meeting. The cost of attendance is an expense to the members....I hope if you pick between the two you pick our 40th.

With this I think it will be key for our new Board to strike a balance this year with our budget; a balance between the expenses of running LPR compared to the expense to the individual members, and all with a view to new income sources along with preventing apathy among the members. Finding this balance is my hope for LPR for 2010.

I hope you have all had a happy holiday season.
Happy New Year. -Steve Mitchell

LES'S RAMBLINGS

Les Schreiber

As we start the new year, I want to thank the outgoing board members for the excellent job they did on the board for you, the LPR members. Outgoing members are: George Jansen (Treasurer), Bob Morgan (Secretary) Karen Morgan (Member at Large) & John Reed (Activities Director). I would also like to introduce the new Board members Herb Radding (Treasurer), Peter Ridgway (Secretary), Suzette Pangrle (Member at Large) and Doug Ryder (Activities Director). Wish them well on supporting you for your club in the coming year.

We will also have some new committee members which will take over their new job in January. But first I want to thank the outgoing ones, that have performed their job, in some cases for more than 5 years. They are Don Orlando (Tours), Pete Siemens (Drivers Ed), Jim Bryant (Tech Sessions), Joe & Cheryl Pruss (Goody Store). Their replacements are Paul Seidel-Smith (Tours), John Cole (Drivers Ed), Blair Hankins (Tech Sessions), & Dick & Mary Wallace (Goody Store). We also have one new position, Autocross Co-Chair, with Anne Roth supporting Allyson Pickard.

My thanks to all that helped make your club an excellent one, and have kept the "Good Time Region" as one of the best.

As we finished the old year with our awards party, which by the way was an excellent one arranged by our VP Jackie Mitchell, and was held at the Coyote Creek Golf Club in Morgan Hill. It was attended by about 52 members who seemed to really enjoy themselves. We enjoyed the excellent dinner, door prizes (donated by some of our POST advertisers, John Reed and me), DJ's music (where we had some great music to dance to), and the awards. This years awards are as follows:

One Day Tour: "Filoli" Tour which was put on by Don Orlando. Multi Day Tour: Clear Lake Tour put on by John & Angie Reed and Kevin & Debbie Bennett, Newcomer of the year: Bob & Deb Frostholt, Worker of the year: Don Orlando, Woman of the Year: Karen Morgan, Event of the Year: Sizzling Sausages by the Bay - Joe & Cheryl Pruss, Special Event of the Year: Rallyes by Bob Frostholt and Enthusiast Man of the Year: Les Schreiber. There were also some autocross awards which were Ken Iles Competition Driving Award which was won by Ed Tefankjian, and the rest were: AX3 - First Place, Bill Dally, AX5 - First Place, Bill Charron, AX11 - First Place, Ed Racer (Ed Tefankjian).

AX11 - Second Place, Les Schreiber,
AX16 - First Place, Anne Roth, AX16
-Second Place, Tony Vanacore

Presidents Special Awards went to John Reed as the Go-to-Guy who not only attends events and takes pictures, but goes to Autocrosses where he doesn't even participate, but is there to let everyone see what our autocross enthusiasts do, by taking the pictures. John also is the one who picks up the POST at the printer to make sure they get delivered; Steve Mitchell for taking on the job of Editor of the Prieta Post; which we all know is a thankless job; and Steve Crane for taking over the LPR website, which is another unsung hero job. Usually the President is only supposed to give one award, but this year I thought that the other two deserved special recognition, for which I, and not the club, purchased their awards. Other special awards were given to the Outgoing Board and Committee Members.

Not to end the year without one more tour, Nanci Bishop and Paul Seidel-Smith put on a one day tour called "Christmas in the Vineyards" which was attended by 12 members of LPR. Great tour, even though it was a little cold in Livermore, but we were able to drink as much wine as we could hold, and was followed up by a very nice dinner in a local Italian restaurant. One more event to take place for LPR this year will be the Gift Exchange to be held at the Highley's on Sunday December 13th, so I hope all will be able to attend.

Next year we will start off the New Year with a GTG to be held at the Crow's Nest in Santa Cruz. This will be a no host brunch, so look further in the POST for this flyer.

Our first tour of the year on January 24 is being put on by Paul Seidel-Smith and co-chair Peter Ridgway. I don't know where it is going, but there should be a flyer in this issue.

Last but not least, I want to remind everyone about our 40th anniversary celebration, to be held at Hayes Mansion on March 20, and hope we can get a lot of our LPR Members to attend.

Thank you everyone for voting the 2009 Rallye Series as the specialty event of the year. With so many to choose from, (Charity Auction, Awards Banquet, Mother's Day, Swap Meet, Concours, Family Picnic, Newcomer Socials, Autocross Series and Tech Sessions) it was a truly unexpected honor to receive the award at our December banquet.

The banquet, of course will be covered elsewhere in this issue, but I was particularly struck by the great location and quality of the meal...well done Jackie and team, well done.

Over the course of the evening, my wife, Deb, and I had several conversations with couples who said, and I will paraphrase here; "Oh, we used to rallye back in the day, but it's too hard" or "Our marriage can't handle a rallye... we argue and yell at each other", or "we're not good at following directions," or "we're not competitive."

I thought about this for a few days before putting my fingers to the keyboard to write this month's column. We have a very successful autocross program with several spousal teams, all of whom enjoy the thrill of competition. We do tours and sometimes get lost following directions. "Not competitive?" Have you seen this group rush to the food lines at a GTG? Sorry, I'm not buying it. These excuses are just that...excuses. I'm learning that there is a lot of rallye experience hidden in the membership of LPR, and by golly, I'm going to extract it.

Our 2009 series went from challenging to ultra easy. It was, in fact, a learning experience for me. But now I think I've broken the code. On the competition/party curve, we need to be at the party end. Great. What better way to reward oneself after 2 hours of rallying than by chilling out with food and beverage. The photo rallye in October hit the nail on the head. Great turnout, fun roads, mild competition, and a relaxing party to follow. This will be the recipe for 2010.

Cheers, Bob

Pasta Night

ala Debbie and Kev

Story by Margot Novak, photos by John Reed

The charm of the Bennett's Tratoria was perfect for the evening filled with good food, good friends and wonderful music provided by LPR's Mike Zampiceni both playing his accordion and singing the romantic songs of the Great American Songbook as he strolled around the tables and among clusters of eager diners.

This was an event that I had long anticipated as the Bennett's joined the region about the time that Pete and I moved back to southern California and thereafter could occasionally make LPR events and the first Pasta Night occurred in 1992 according to Kevin. I read a number of delightful write-ups in the Prieta Post over the years and how much fun they were and I wanted to experience one for myself, and I was not disappointed. The last opportunity before this one was hosted by the Bennett's in 1999, so there was a decade of unfulfilled hunger built up.

This was supposed to be a shared experience, except at the last minute Pete couldn't make the trip so I flew up solo, so to speak, and was taken in by our good friends and former neighbors, Reg and Jean Ricket, who have been in LPR about five years.

The Bennett's had other family members join in this good time, including Kevin's daughter-in-law, Kelly and her mother, Joanne Sabo and the grandkids, Emily and Alex.

It was great to see long-time LPR friends, Ken and June Iles, Larry and Juanita Brisson and John and Angie Reed. Angie introduced me to newer members that I had not known such as Laurie and Kurt Delimon and Donna and Tom Micele. I was also reintroduced to Doris Britschgi that I had met on one of the Solvang tours. She and her husband Russ sat at the same table where I also became acquainted with Bob and Deb Frostholt and shared some conversation about 356's. The Reed's and the Rickets were also in on the conversation.

The food service was a well-planned and orderly buffet-style by table and there was plenty of pasta for all, as well as two delicious salads; one a Caesar and the other spinach with orange-honey dressing, which I enjoyed very much. The pastas were superb and distinctive. There were three varieties, Italian sausage, seafood and three-cheese, which had a mixture of gruyere, white cheddar and Romano cheeses. Kevin said that the three-cheese was a new addition to the menu. Sad to say, I didn't try that one, but my favorite was the seafood, which had shrimp and scallops in it. My informal survey of diners indicated that the Italian sausage was the favorite of the evening. It might have been the marscapone cheese that gave it such a rich flavor. All of these were accompanied with delicious toasted garlic bread. And then there were five fabulous deserts to tempt us. There were cheese cake, tiramisu, brownies with pecans, lemon cake and some other rich tiramisu-type desert. It was really a test of restraint.

Following the meal there was the brief meeting when the Bennett's received a gift certificate to the Baja Cactus Restaurant and a pasta spoon for their labor of love and dazzling display of culinary art, from Activities Director, John Reed. John also reminded members of upcoming December events; the Annual Gift Exchange and the Awards Banquet.

One of the outstanding qualities of LPR is that its spirit of enthusiasm continues with long-time members as new members get involved in running the club. •

Hostess Debbie confirms to Peter and Jacqueline that POST Editor and known wine spiller is more than 5,000 miles away so red wine can be safely poured.

The usual LPR chow line can be seen at most GTG's, exceptional pasta is the draw at this event.

Annual Awards Banquet

Coyote Creek Golf Club

Story by Steve Mitchell, photos by Steve Mitchell and John Reed

"It's a Winter Wonderland" was the theme of this year's Annual Awards Banquet held at the Coyote Creek Golf Club in Morgan Hill. Blue with white snowflakes provided the decorations to set the mood for an evening of dinner, dancing, raffle prizes and this year's awards and recognitions.

Assisted by our son Matt, your VP Jackie Mitchell and I started decorating the room with vinyl stick-on snowflakes for the windows, snowflake ornaments, and the center pieces far before the 6:30 pm cocktail hour. The center pieces were hand-made by Jackie using artificial trees, glitter, white snowflake ornaments and wrapping gathered after numerous trips to Michael's for the arts and craft supplies.

LPR members arrived promptly for the cocktail hour, some on the shuttle arranged with the nearby Holiday Inn where a block of rooms was also made available. It was a festive mood and from what I could tell, everyone seemed to be pleased with the venue. Our total attendance was 52, a bit below expectations. People were greeted by your hostess Jackie, provided with handmade nametags, a guide to the evening's activities, and enjoyed a selection of a variety of warm and cool Hors d'Oeuvres.

One thing that makes this event special is the door prizes donated by the Prieta Post advertisers and club members. This list of contributors is extensive, and as I understand it, each will receive a personal thank you from our President. The prizes ranged from a stack of post cards used to notify Porsche of a change of address to gift certificates valued up to $400. Mostly the prizes were t-shirts, posters, wine, key chains, gift certificates, car care products and other tchotchkes. Jackie managed to give out the door prizes by calling ticket numbers at appropriate times throughout the evening. Each guest received 5 raffle tickets and a few folks won more than one trip to the big door prize table. I was not one of the lucky ones.

Guests seemed to be pleased with the preparation and presentation of the selection of either Salmon with lobster sauce or a bacon-wrapped Filet Mignon with asparagus and cognac demi-glaze. Dinner included wine and a choice of chocolate mousse cake or cheese cake desserts. There was certainly plenty of food.

After dinner was time for awards. I was recruited as the MC and was assisted by Les. I spent what I now think is far too much time in preparing for the job. I had even picked music for each person to receive awards...like the academy awards....but Dwayne our DJ seemed to have lost a bit of the cadence of the presentations and some members started griping about the music. Well, what do they say about the "best laid plans." Anyway, I think it was a success, I like seeing the surprise when people win.

Dancing finished the evening, something our DJ Dwayne had a good handle on.

Look forward to next year's awards banquet at the Holiday Inn in San Jose, theme...Candy Canes. •

The door prize table was carefully arranged and decorated.

The Morgan's number gets pulled early-on and they go for the car-care products, always a popular door prize item.

Minutes of the December 2009 Board Meeting

Secretary - Bob Morgan

The December Board Meeting was held on December 3, 2009 at the Round Table Pizza on Camden Ave, San Jose and was called to order at 7:03 pm by President Les Schreiber.

Board members present were: Les Schreiber, Jackie Mitchell, George Jansen, John Reed, Barry Pangrle, Bob and Karen Morgan. Other members in attendance were Paul Seidel-Smith, Peter Ridgway, Steve Mitchell, Herb Radding, Angie Reed, Dick & Mary Wallace, Tony Vanacore, Ed Tefankjian, Greg Sickal, Steve Crane, Virginia Jansen, Anne Roth, Doug Ryder, Ken & June Iles, Suzette Pangrle, Pete Siemens, John Cole, Bill & Emilie Highley.

George moved to approve the November minutes and John seconded. The minutes were approved.

Directors' Reports

President: Les Schreiber

John Reed read an amendment to the Policies & Procedures. George moved, John seconded and the motion was approved. Post publication survey, option one, no change, seven votes; option two, publish every other month, nine votes; option three, was to offer it only on-line, and send out cards got nineteen votes; option 4 was to limit it to 36 pages and got twelve votes. Considering the results of the Survey, the Board determined that a majority of the total responses were in favor of a printed Prieta Post, in other words, 28 responses in total were in favor of a printed edition, compared to 19 wanting it exclusively on-line. As a consequence and after a full discussion, the Board considered a motion by George who moved that we have minimum of 36 pages and a maximum of 48 pages, published monthly. John seconded, and the motion passed with a vote of 3 to 2 with one abstention. Emilie provided an update on the PCA board meeting upcoming in February. LPR is to host the Saturday 20th evening. Emilie is looking for entertainment ideas. For outgoing board members: be sure to hand-off the information to your replacements. Anne Roth will be the Autocross Co-Chair. The Member-at-Large will keep the perpetual trophies this coming year.

Vice-President: Jackie Mitchell

Jackie reminded us that the Awards Banquet is this Saturday, and the Gift exchange is coming up. The team met on the 40th anniversary plans. Next meeting will be at the Round Table Pizza next Tuesday at 7:00pm. Jackie sent out the recommendation for the GTG policies. Les provided feedback. Jackie recommended that we provide a copy to everyone hosting GTGs next year.

Secretary: Bob Morgan

Bob had nothing new to report.

Treasurer: George Jansen

George noted that we are $4k short for November. We've received almost 50% of the Post advertising payments for next year. Steve asked what we do with those who haven't paid. We will make the deadline the same as the deadline for the February Post. If the advertisers have not paid by then we will remove their ad from the Post until it is paid.

Activities: John Reed

We've received the December insurance, and we will request the insurance for January soon. The 2010 Calendar of Events is close to being finalized. Once we have the autocross dates finalized it may require moving two Rallye dates because they are on autocross weekends. All changes to the calendar need to go through the Activities chair.

Membership: Barry Pangrle

LPR Membership Report 12/03/09, see page 20.

Karen moved and Jackie seconded the motion to approve the new members. The motion was approved.

Virginia wants to recruit for new members in her neighborhood. Barry offered to give her the PCA application. PCA is also 5% down in membership.

Member-At-Large: Karen Morgan

Karen will amend the policies & procedures to include the changes in the P&P. Bob will send a copy to Steve Crane to update the on-line version.

Committee Reports:

Advertising Chair: Bill Highley

Bill had nothing to report.

Prieta Post Editor: Steve Mitchell

Steve wanted to get the list of appointees for next year. Les announced the appointed positions:

Advertising: Bill Highley bbillhighley@hotmail.com

Autocross: Allyson Pickard allysonpickard@hotmail.com

Autocross co-chair: Anne Roth alroth@sbcglobal.net

Charity: Sue Sickal Suesickal@yahoo.com

Drivers Ed: John Cole johnmcole@comcast.net

Goody Store: Dick & Mary Wallace webuy@wallace778.com

Hospitality: Emilie Highley ehighley@apr.com

Prieta Post Editor: Steve Mitchell steve.mitchell@earthlink.net

Public Relations: Ken Iles keniles@comcast.net

Rallye: Robert Frostholt bobfrostholt@gmail.com

Safety: Ed Tefankjian edjt@earthlink.net

Tech Session: Blair Hankins blair.hankins@att.net

Tour Director: Paul Seidel Smith porschepaul77@gmail.com

Webmaster: Steve Crane webmaster@lpr.pca.org

Safety: Ed Tefankjian

There were no driving events in November and no safety issues. Ed recommended that CDS follow the MOU and provide a quarterly financial status report. Les announced that John Cole will be our CDS representative. John was fine with Ed's recommendation.

Tours: Don Orlando/Paul Seidel-Smith

Don was not at the meeting. Paul reminded us there will be a winery tour on Sunday, 12/6. Just show up if you're interested. Peter Ridgway will be Tour co-chair with Paul Seidel-Smith.

Tech: Jim Bryant

Jim was not at the meeting. There is one tech session scheduled in March.

Autocross: Allyson Pickard/Anne Roth

Anne announced that we have the autocross dates for the upcoming year, but they need to be finalized by Marina.

Goodie Store: Joe & Cheryl Pruss/Dick & Mary Wallace

The value of inventory is about $2,700. Dick needs to get $350 for another 100 cloisonné's. Barry moved and John seconded. The motion passed. Mary has been contacted by the new clothing supplier. Mary handed out some photos of some shirts that we could purchase. Paul volunteered to help find quality merchandise.

Charity: Sue Sickal

Sue was not at the meeting, but Emilie reminded us that cookbooks are available.

Webmaster: Steve Crane

Steve is tracking the number of hits on the website. The calendar is posted under events. Steve will be posting photos of the board members.

Rallye: Bob Frostholm

Bob was not at the meeting.

Public Relations: Ken Iles

Ken had submitted an article to Panorama, along with several photos. None of the photos were published, and Steve inadvertently got credit for the article due to an oversight by the editor of Panorama.

Drivers Education: John Cole

John provided an update, and announced that CDS will be involved in Cherry's Jubilee in September.

Old Business:

Should we accept links to outside contacts and publish those on the website? There is some interest in accepting links for sites that might be of interest to our members, like places we've visited on tours for example.

New Business:

Les gave Emilie Highley (Alain Pinel) a presidential appreciation award for her continued support.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:27 PM.

Respectfully Submitted, /s/ Bob Morgan
