PRESIDENT'S LETTER

We are into full swing with our club activities. We have had several Good Time Gatherings, several Tours, two Tech Sessions and two Autocrosses. If you haven't attended any of these, there is still time to attend your first event with more events scheduled for the remainder of the year. Remember that it only takes your attendance to two events to get your LPR badge with your name on it.

In June, it is our annual Swap Meet at Partsheaven in Hayward. This is always a well-attended event that you can be part of if you are looking for a special part for your car. If you can't find a particular part at the Swap Meet, there is always Al at Partsheaven who may have the part or be able to get it for you. There will also be a Zone Concour at this event. It is not too late to get your car ready for the concour as Full Concour, to as simple as Wash & Shine and everything in between. LPR will be hosting the food service again this year. Come enjoy our world famous hot dogs, hamburgers and polish dogs (well, at least, our club's famous food).

If you have visited the LPR webpage, you will notice that the LPR Goodie Store is now advertising several of the garments available. There is an entire Port Authority catalog to select many other clothing and apparel items. Please contact Paul Smith, PorschePaul77@gmail.com if you are looking for something special. Become one of the proud LPR members representing our club by wearing an LPR logo garment.

If you autocross, you have noticed Porsche of Fremont and Borelli Motor Sport logos on the AX trailer. These were manufactured and installed by Miller Vinyl Graphics. I spoke with Carrie Miller about temporary AX numbers that could be placed on our cars. She informed me that they make static-cling numbers that can be customized as you wish which can be placed on and removed from a car without affecting the paint. These numbers can be reused many times when installed properly. If you are interested, you can contact Miller Vinyl Graphics at millersvinyl@sbcglobal.net. Carrie is interested in becoming an LPR advertiser, so let her know that you saw this info in the LPR Prieta Post.

I am looking forward to seeing you at our next event.

Beer Bottle
Bob Morgan
greeting the guests.

Acting the Maggot* with the Morgan's

By Kevin Bennett

Irish slang for fooling around*

On Saturday, March 16th, Bob & Karen Morgan once again opened their home to an invasion of the LPR masses. Karen's maiden name is Hennessy and it is apparent that she feels a close affiliation with St. Patrick's Day, as she has been hosting this annual event with LPR for years. Either that or she feels it is just a good excuse to eat, drink and be merry with her LPR buds.

When Debbie and I arrived the party was already in full swing. Karen looked calm and cool in her shamrock bedecked blouse, greeting guests and casually organizing the kitchen while her worker-leprechaun, husband Bob, looked almost harried as he scuttled about working on the corned beef, cabbage, potatoes and assorted other dishes to be served up to their green-clad and St. Paddy's ornamented guests. I struck up a conversation with Les Schreiber, in which he informed me that he had just heard on the radio that a first time offender with a DUI can expect a $16,000 fine. Being a conservative and a curmudgeon I embraced the notion of such a large fine, but also being a cynic, I couldn't help questioning the veracity of Les' assertion. In the interest of social tranquility I let the whole thing slide, but I still think Les had to be off by a decimal point. I had a brief encounter with Rena & Chris Schaut. We share a common interest in obscure movies, are always on the lookout for little known gems and offer recommendations to each other for recent discoveries. Strangely, our biggest agreement was on “Life of Pi”, which we mutually lauded as a great film achievement but is certainly not an obscure film. The Schauts and I were interrupted by my wife announcing that the food was ready so we lined up for the evening’s pièce de résistance, corned beef and cabbage ala Morgan. Delicious! With the food service preparation complete, you couldn’t help but notice a change in our host, Bob. He was no longer worker-leprechaun Bob. He was wearing a t-shirt emblazoned with “Guinness” across the chest, he was holding his standard issue beverage bottle, in this case, appropriately, Guinness, and was absolutely back to being his usual grinning, GTG persona, Beer Bottle Bob. As we enjoyed our meal, Debbie regaled the table with tales of knife fights and other battles between her parents. Suzette

Christina Vincent, Lisa Knox and Vince Vincent hit the chow line. Lisa is thinking, “That’s the piece I wanted!”

Joanne Antonowicz doesn't seem to be too pleased being stuck doing trivia between these two old codgers, Tony Antonowicz and Ken Iles.

Rudy Herz and Jim Bryant work on the trivia, though Jim appears to be trying to look up someone's skirt!

Pangrle calmed things down with a description of the upcoming Ridge to Ridge tour that she and Barry are leading the day after my birthday in April. My wife and I had initially elected to forego this tour due to the potential family conflict, Debbie had advised Barry and Suzette of the decision, and, of course, I mucked everything up by unilaterally deciding on the spur of the moment that we should go anyway. Fortunately, there were only plastic knives on the table and this arbitrary change of plans without proper consultation merely elicited an eye-roll from She-who-must-be-obeyed. I could deal with that. I sat and talked with the Provasi's a bit. Tom has been doing a little heritage research online. No, not his heritage; the heritage of his 914. Tom waxed euphoric about the wonders of the web and all of the information he has been acquiring about the races and racers with which his car has been involved. He had text printouts and half a dozen or more large glossy prints of his car participating in numerous well known venues. He seemed as pleased as a southern boy discovering he had a great-great who was a colonel in the Army of the Confederacy. Ken Iles was busy flitting about the party and fomenting revolution. He has apparently given up on diplomacy and is taking more of a guerilla approach in trying to whip up a groundswell of good times within the club. It's hard to think of Ken as a revolutionary, but when it comes to good times the man is insatiable! Our hostess distributed a trivia test on Irish slang to about 15 teams. There was a three way tie and, I guess to avoid knife fights and fist-cuffs, a drawing was held to allow each team to come up separately and choose their reward from the prize pile, which included t-shirts, oven mitts and assorted Erin oriented paraphernalia. The winners were Barry Pangrle, Lisa Knox, Tom & Donna Micele, Angie Reed, Jennifer Bryant, Kathy Musser and Mary Wallace... a pretty rowdy bunch, so I guess the precautions were justified. A thank you gift was presented to the Morgans in the form of a restaurant gift certificate and an Irish-blessing refrigerator magnet... "God bless this O'frigerator" or something like that. The obligatory membership meeting was conducted by Prez. Vince Vincent, in which upcoming club events were promoted. Susan George and Bob Squier, two infiltrators from Diablo Region, even promoted their own one day tour to be held in April. With all of the necessities dispensed with, the party gradually broke up as the revelers kissed, hugged and bid adieu. On behalf of LPR and all those who attended, thank you, Karen and Beer Bottle Bob, for once again hosting this wonderful event. Thanks, also, to Jackie Mitchell for the green chocolate dipped strawberries.

Poor Karen. She's a school teacher and here she is again, grading papers, here with hubby Beer Bottle Bob.

Kevin Bennett does his Keith Richard impression... I'm not sure who looks better.

Trivia winner Kathy Musser tries to decide what to do with these shamrock hangers while Jennifer Bryant contemplates her choice of award.

Veep Jackie Mitchell presents the thank you gift to hosts Karen & Bob Morgan. I hope Jackie charged them ten cents for the bag... this is San Jose you know.

Trivia contest winners Donna & Tom Micele and Angie Reed display their prizes; oven mitts and Irish figures. The guitars were just to get the attention of the.....paparazzi!

Campbell Easter Parade

By Kathy Musser

PHOTOS: John Reed and Vince Vincent

The weather forecast for Saturday the 30th of March was not very promising for a parade. It was raining in Santa Cruz, so I called Rudy to find out how the weather was on the “other side” of the hill. Rudy responded with “rain or shine the parade will go on”. So...we loaded the many balloons and the giant pink rabbit. When we arrived at Orchard City Drive in Campbell, we were greeted by three beautifully decorated Porsches and a friendly pink rabbit. We pulled in behind the Reeds and busied ourselves with the task of decorating. As it turned out, the weather was perfect!!!

When the parade started, Rudy was our fearless leader followed by John and Angie Reed and then Johnny Musser. Unfortunately, Ken and June Iles had to drop out because of battery problems. The pink rabbit (Christina Vincent) that rode with Rudy was a favorite with the many children lining the street. Johnny III and I found a great spot to view the parade and he was able to take lots of pictures for us. Following the parade, we regrouped and headed off to Alviso for lunch. We arrived at Vahl's and were joined by Ken and June Iles. Lunch was great! There was lots of laughs and wonderful stories. The award for the best decoration went to Christina. Emilie Highley's rabbit costume is definitely a crowd pleaser! The restaurant provided us with great service and delicious food. We all decided that this would be a great place to hold the board meetings!!!!

Thank you Rudy and Joanna Herz for a great day! It was such a treat!!!

Announcing the Famous Annual GGR Porboys Beginner Autocross School !!!!!!!!!!

It is that time of year to start thinking about all of the great Porsche driving opportunities in 2013. On Sunday May 19, Howard Yao, and John Seidell will again run this school. It is really for beginners or people who have autocrossed only a few times. If you have ever wondered what it is like to experience driving your Porsche on the edge (but safely in control) then this is for you. This is a good safe place for drivers to learn about the handling of their Porsche.

The school will be on the large North runway area of the old Alameda NAS (just past the Alameda Ferry Terminal). The day begins at 7:30 AM with registration, teching of cars, and then a driver's meeting at 8:15. Students will then walk the course with their morning instructors. After that, students will be driving on skidpads in order to learn the feel of an oversteering and an understeering car. It is a lot of fun!! The day will proceed with students running the Autocross course with their instructors, while half of the students learn to work the course.

After the lunch break we continue to run cars in hour sessions until 5 PM. It is truly a fun day with lots of learning. One of the best parts is that students get a few rides in their instructor's car. We try as best we can, to have instructors that have had experience with cars similar to the students. You will also have different instructors in the morning and afternoon.

The school is sponsored by Joe and Annie Zeiph, the owners of Porboys German Automotive Service. They are located at 3640 East 9th ST. in Oakland. Joe and his technicians are experts in the repair of all German makes, but they specialize in the maintenance, repair, and complete rebuilds of 911, 944, 914, 928, 996, 997, and Boxster cars. If you have questions or need repairs, call Porboys at 510-437-9400. They do Smog Checks, excellent work on all German makes, and are highly recommended.

If you sign up and pay the $99 fee, you get:

Instruction from the best and most experienced instructors in the west!!
(Really)

1. A lunch including Porboys sandwiches, chips, cookies, sodas and water.

2. A Porboys Autocross School T-shirt or hat.
3. A knowledge of how an Autocross is run, and how to work different jobs.
4. A basic knowledge of car control and you will learn great tips on how to handle your car.
5. You will drive home with a big smile on your face!!!!

If this sounds really good then sign up now on www.Motorsportreg.com You will first need to create an account, then go to the Sunday May 19 date and select the GGR Porboys Autocross School. If you have questions email Howard Yao at howard@aberrance.com or John Seidell at johnseid@astound.net We do limit the number of students to 55 so that there is plenty of driving time. Advance signup and payment is required. See you there!!

currently responsible for checking to see that belts and helmets are secured check for loose items before releasing cars to the Start Master.

- It was noted by the AX Chair and several other members, that at the time the cars were inspected and signed off, the loose items were not present in the vehicle.
