KEN'S KORNER

Ken Iles,
Founder and Public Relations Chairperson

So what was it, Soup Night or Sock Hop? Loma Prieta Region's annual Soup Night was held this year at Diana and Hal Hallock's lovely home, and in addition to the usual soup contest everyone was also asked to wear their wildest socks for a socks contest. Seven different tasting soups, thirty wild people, and sixty not-necessarily-matching wild socks showed up for this strange event. Strange indeed, for just this once it garnered even more interest in the ladies' legs than normal for this region. Conversely, the ladies showed unusual interest in the legs of the gentlemen. The unusual names of all the soups and the winners who concocted them are too numerous to mention here, but the sock winners were equally divided among four men and four women, with the prizes an innovative means of winning raffle tickets. Never let it be said that this region is unimaginative and not fair minded, for equal opportunity abounds.

Diana judged the women, and Hal judged the men. Diana's winners included Joanna Antonowicz, Emilie Highley, Debbie Bennett, and Christina Vincent. Hal's winner choices included Kevin Bennett, Bill Highley, Rudi Herz, and Steve Mitchell.

It is worthy of note that Steve Mitchell, the "Prieta Post" Editor, was made especially welcome with hoots and cheers as this was his first return to an official Porsche Club event since he had recently undergone some absolutely horrifying 15 hour surgery. Despite all challenges he faced he has still managed to continuously produce the club's newsletter on his laptop without any break, often from his bedside. His bravery and positive attitude along with the courageous nursing help from his wife Jackie, has helped him through this difficult time. Extensive re-hab therapy and continued support from club friends will no doubt speed the process.

TECH TALK

Welcome to Tech Session season. Or everything you didn't know you really wanted to know.

OK Ya'll here's the deal on this years tech sessions.(BTW, it's acceptable for me to use ya'll because 3 months in the swamp have turned me into a Salt Water Redneck).

We're starting out in our typical manner: changing things.

On April 26th, the Tech Session will be at Bascom Trim and Upholstery instead of Don's Autowerks. This happened after the mid month reminders so blame me not Dave.

I think you'll find it's for the best. We usually go to Bascom in late Feb. or early March. John Wardell thought it would be really good to have a tech session when Bascom could actually open their doors to sunshine and warmth. I agreed. This will give us a better view and a more pleasant experience. John promised door prizes, coffee and donuts and maybe a few surprises.

On May 10th, we'll be having the Tech Session at Don's Autowerk's. The date was changed to avoid conflict with the pre-Parade Concours School. Now Les Schreiber can bring the pre-Parade Concours school to the South Bay on the 10th...fair warning; Les has a slide show!

We should benefit as well from what Les learns from the Concours judges in Livermore. In addition to the cleaning and detailing, Don and his fine crew will be coaching us on the mechanical preparation needed for Parade.

While not an official Tech Session, we're all invited to Fremont Porsche's open house on Thursday May 15th from 6AM til 9PM. They'll have their new showrooms and garage area open as well as doing a big intro for the new Macan. Gunter sounded pretty excited about the changes so it should be fun.

For the rest of the year, I'll be talking with all our POST advertisers to line up other tech sessions.

Dings and Dents will probably be doing another session and I've already got a volunteer Porsche in need of a little TLC. I wanted to give YA'LL the opportunity to let me know if there's anything you'd like to see or hear about. Or if there are any other technical issues you'd like to include; i.e. what's broken on your Porsche that needs to be fixed?

Please email or call with ideas. If I like them, I might even try to make them happen!

Happy Trails,

Peter

2014 "volunteer" Tech Chair

Tech Session

April 26th
9:00am

Bascom Trim and Uphostery 852 Aldo Avenue Santa Clara

John Wardell and company will once again be offering LPR attendees an informative session on maintenance and repairs to facilitate keeping our beauties in pristine condition. John will be happy to answer your questions as well as offer his insights into modification and replacements. Additionally, John has promised some door prizes and maybe a surprise or two.

There is an LPR Tech Session fee of $2.00.

the Morgan's host

St. Patrick's Day

Story by Mary Wallace

PHOTOS: John Reed

Host Bob and Karen Morgan present a huge platter of corned beef. You'd think that this would be enough food, but...

Saturday Mar. 15 was a lovely day. As the Morgans opened their Irish clad home to LPR, we all filed in and began sampling appetizers, drinking wine, beer, and of course Bob's famous Irish eggnog.

It was nice and warm; so Nancy and Paul, Jim Davis, Kevin and others were outside enjoying tables in the late afternoon sun. Jennifer and Jim had spent the day enjoying Santa Cruz. Joanne and Tony arrived with a wonderful appetizer. It was a warmed brie topped with a "frosting" of brandy, macadamia nuts, and other goodies. Yumm! It was on the counter replacing the Musser's wonderful salmon that was almost gone.

Joanna and Rudy had huge green felt hats. Les had a green hat with green hair attached as well as green dye in his beard. Christina Vincent had darling green ribboned high heels that I couldn't even stand in, let alone walk.

Ken and June were appropriately green.

As usual Karen and Bob had decorated everything from the front door to the back yard with shamrocks, Irish themed table cloths, etc. They had recently redone the kitchen and moved the garbage can. It confused some of us who looked in the old place. Bob stood in the corner slicing the corned beef.

Soon it was time to eat. There were all kinds of potatoes, Karen's famous corned beef and soda bread. Some ate outside - others inside. We ate inside with Bigg John, Vincents, Rudi, Bennetts, and others. Lots of us had seconds on the corned beef. Kathy Musser was substituting for Jackie Mitchell and collected our monies and presented Bob and Karen with their gift. Kathy was also pushing a May 3rd. tour which I think had a waiting list by the end of the evening. In the "meeting" part of the evening Vince told us about parade registration and upcoming events.

The dessert table was our next event. We had carrot cake, cookies, and other sweets.

After dinner Karen surprised us by announcing Irish bingo instead of the usual quiz. We bingoers had our cards on the table outside and used marbles to cover squares as Karen called out the pictures such as “yellow beer on green”, “shamrock”, or “pot of gold”. Kevin and Debbie’s grandson Alex won the first prize, but we kept playing. Many received gifts. I even got a green smiley faced spatula.

It was time to thank our hosts, pack up our plates, and head home. Thanks again Bob and Karen.

Lisa LaForge poses with an over-sized leprechaun... looks kind of like Les Schreiber.

Joanna Herz looks like she's anxious to get the lids off so she can dive in!

Joanne Antonowicz must surely love her carrots; she's never looked happier!

...Fred Schatz and Kevin Bennett show what happens when you're the last ones in an LPR serving line.

Karen looks like she's just received a St. Paddy's goose!... and is that a baby bottle Bob is using for his Guinness? "I've heard of nursing a drink, but that's ridiculous!"
