At an autocross:

- The capabilities of your Porsche you learn - not to mention the 'fun' aspect of driving your Porsche the way it was designed to be driven
- Learn how to control your car you can. AX is all about car control-braking, cornering, accelerating.
- Autocrossing teaches a driver many skills, all of which a better driver makes
- AND... meet some fun and interesting people you can!

LPR is proud to present..."

The Autocross Driving Experience"

Modeled after PCA's Taste of the Track/Track Sampler program, PCA members are now able to experience autocross, by riding along with an Instructor for a hot lap around an autocross course at any one of our regularly scheduled autocrosses.

You must be of legal age, have signed a waiver and for a small, nominal charge of $5.00, you will be able to be in the passenger seat with one of our fantastic instructors, as they take a 'run' for time.

If you have always wanted to give AX a try, but didn't want to commit, here's the way to "Experience Autocross".

All funds collected will be donated to charity.

Autocross, not just about racing it is.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Parade registration starts on March 11th. I hope everyone who plans to attend has looked at the many events and dinners available to determine which ones to attend. If you are not familiar with this process, please visit the PCA website. On the 11th, please allow enough time to complete the registration process, since with demand the website may be slow.

Autocross season is now here with the first autocross scheduled for March 22nd at Marina. It looks like another great season with a full calendar. This year, we have two additional days which we are planning to present a Zone Autocross school. Hopefully everything will fall in place so this can come together. There will be more information to come as the dates near.

This month will feature our third Good Time Gathering with the annual St. Patrick's Day gathering at the Morgan's. This event fills quickly, so if you haven't already made your reservation (and I hope it is not too late), please contact Bob or Karen.

The Membership Directory is moving forward with the membership notification being sent out for "buy-in" verification. If you wish to have your name and any contact information listed, you must respond that you wish to do so. Your response will be a 'yes', 'no' or even no response. You will not be giving any information to be placed in the directory at this time. A follow-up form will be sent to those responding, and with a 'yes', that they wish to be included will need to complete the form. This form will list options for address, phone number and email. Those only wishing to have their name listed without any contact information may do so. A member may list as little or as much contact info as he/she wishes.

KEN'S KORNER

Ken Iles,
Founder and Public Relations Chairperson

Loma Prieta Region's traditional 'out with the old, and in with the new' included the annual Awards Banquet, and also a Gift Exchange party as the last two events in 2013, while 2014 started off with a tour and brunch.

Ably organized by Jackie Mitchell, the Awards Banquet held on December 7th at Fiorillo's Restaurant in Santa Clara was especially enjoyable due to the overabundance of door prizes available from our generous donors. Everyone's raffle ticket was a winner. The ladies were glamorous in their evening gowns, and even the guys cleaned up pretty well in their tuxes, or jackets and ties. Of course the usual dancing and partying ensued, for this is what we do.

But to extend the 'old' year's frivolity to the max., our annual Gift Exchange was held at the home of Les Schreiber on December 14th. We all know the routine of number drawn gift selection, only to be legally "stolen" by somebody else if they like it better. Emilie Highley's Prieta Post write-up of this event was hilarious, and literally a blow by blow account of this fun filled free-for-all.

And so, onto the 'new' year's fun. The 2014 events calendar provisionally lists a social affair every month, while tours top the car event schedules no less than on eleven occasions. In fact, LPR might also be known as "Tours-R-Us". The very first car oriented event of the year was a tour on January 12th to the Crow's Nest Restaurant in Santa Cruz Harbor. Organized once again by Les Schreiber, some 17 cars turned out, many new members enjoying the legendary hospitality and friendliness of the region. After brunch, an extension of the tour included a visit to the Santa Cruz Natural Bridges area, and to view the famous Monarch butterflies nearby.

Soup & Socks night at the Hallock's or as I call it the Sock Hop

Story by Les Schreiber

PHOTOS: John Reed

In LPR, the term "soup line" carries a whole different meaning. Insert, Kevin Bennett was just relaxin' on the floor when, suddenly, this happened.

What a wonderful way to spend an evening with such wonderful LPR people, and especially our outstanding hosts, Diana & Hal Hallock, at their beautiful home in the Villages'. Upon arrival, I was greeted by Hal, who said, "What would you like to drink?" and it went up from there.

As people arrived with their soup, salad or desert to share, I noticed that for some reason, most were wearing some very unusual socks. Guys were looking at the woman's legs, which is not unusual, but the women were also looking at the men's legs (maybe not unusual, but very obvious), but more on that later.

Early in the evening, LPR gave a very warm welcome to Steve and Jackie Mitchell. With all the testing and treatments Steve has been going thru this past month, we were delighted they could join us! Keep up the good spirits, Steve and Jackie.

On to the party with shrimp and salmon appetizers followed by giant crock pots of Split Pea, Meatball, Chicken Noodle, Chicken Chili, Potato Leek and Tomato Soups with pasta, spinach and kale salads which were enjoyed by all. Cup after cup of steaming soup left the kitchen only to come back empty for a refill. Crazy socks must be good for the appetite! If that wasn't enough, dessert included banana cream pie, a sumptuous cheesecake with fresh berries, delicate fruit tarts, chocolate croissants, and a chocolate mousse tuxedo cake. Gee, it's a good thing socks stretch!

To explain why everyone was looking at legs, it was Sock Night with everyone donning their most outrageous or glamorous socks. Stripes, plaids, argyle, socks with signs, socks with no ankles, crazy prints, superhero socks complete with capes! Our ladies winners were Joanna Antonowicz with leopard spots, Wonder Woman, Emilie Highley, Debbie Bennett with gold lame fleur-de-lis on black and Christina Vincent with multi pastel mismatch socks. The ladies received another outrageous pair stuffed with lottery tickets.

On to the men...the winners were Kevin Bennett in Bad Ass socks (we all know he was true to form) who won $5 on his lottery ticket, Superman Bill Highley - Rudy Herz in Bavarian Split socks, the big winner with $5 twice plus 2 more tickets ($12 total) and Steve Mitchell in world's best dad socks!

Thanks to John Reed and his trusty camera. Kathy Musser presented the Hallock's with a gift card to the Fish Market(they won't be ordering chowder), and Hal's favorite, a frosted Fish Cookie. LPR, you knocked our socks off!

Joanna Herz, Debbie Bennett and Christina Vincent... a chatty trio if I ever saw one.

No, it wasn't laundry day at the Hallock's, these were the prizes for the socks contest.

Sue Sickal schmooze's with Rudi and Joanna Herz.

Bill Highley represented Superman with his hosiery...

Debbie Bennett shows off her prize; new sox and some scratchers.

Kathy Musser (middle) presents the thank you gift to hosts Hal & Diane Hallock.
