VICE PRESIDENT'S LETTER

At Werks Reunion with Jerry Seinfeld's 911, the first one built.

“LET’S GO HAVE SOME FUN!”

That’s what I say every time we get into the car. OK, maybe not every time we get in the car, but when we are heading out to see our LPR friends to join them on a tour or go to a GTG, those words set the tone and put a smile on our faces. We have been blessed to have such a wonderful group of LPR friends that besides enjoying their company on tours and GTG’s, some of them have shared a meal, a movie, or even their favorite hobby with us. Steve has signed us up for most everything lately and I am actually having a hard time keeping up with him! We can’t tell you how much we both need and appreciate your continued support.

Since I’m writing this up for Vince this month since he is on vacation, I must mention the upcoming events we have for September starting off with the Board Meeting, the tech session at Fremont Porsche, then the Zone 7 AX Weekend, and finally our Charity Event hosted by Bill and Emilie Highley. See inside for all the details for each event. Steve and I hope to see all of you soon. And when I say “all”, I mean the GTG/tour regulars, our LPR friends that we only occasionally see (we miss you!), and any newbies that are interested in having a Good Time (hence GTG = Good Time Gathering), after all, we are the Good Times Region. ... Now, let’s go have some fun!

Milestones of Memories Good Time Gathering

story by Karen Morgan
PHOTOS: John Reed

“What kinds of milestones should we commemorate – personal or Porsche?”

I asked Mary Wallace, when I called to RSVP this lovely theme for a GTG. “Any kind,” she responded. Bob & I had one of each; so, armed with a bottle of wine and our memories, we drove over to their gracious home on this balmy mid-summer evening.

When we pulled up to their home, we immediately noticed the two mile/kilometer markers from LeMans. That began a whole new conversation as Bob & I remembered all the 24 Hours of LeMans races we’ve watched (not to mention the movie which ranks as one of Bob’s favorite movies of all times – how thrilled he was to find out early in our relationship that I was as enamored of racing as he was). He even has a LeMans style racing jacket that hangs prominently in our garage.

We were greeted by our wonderful LPR friends and enjoyed the delicious appetizers (including Kathy Musser’s go-to salmon). Because Ken & June Iles have been married 60 years, Dick and Mary soon presented a milestone prize to Ken (two limes and a bottle of tonic) and June (the gin). As we all know, gin & tonic belong together just like June & Ken!

After libations loosened our lips, we all began to share our milestones. Some were personal:

- Johnny & Kathy – their 33rd wedding anniversary when Johnny surprised Kathy with tickets to a Steely Dan concert
- Rudi - his 85th birthday
- Joanna – convincing Rudi (since his 44th birthday) that he was indeed the marrying kind
- Jacqueline – (smiling demurely) that Peter had picked her up in a bar

- Margie & Ken – a wedding anniversary and that they are both digging retirement now that Margie received her 1st retirement check (Ken retired a while ago)
- John Reed – his granddaughter’s acceptance of a full scholarship to Presbyterian University of North Carolina for her academic and athletic (basketball) talents
- Bonnie – will be 75 in September (really?)
- Karen – the 4th of July births of her niece’s triplet firecrackers

Some milestones were Porsche related:

- Les – the Portland Porsche Parade and his surprise win in his Concours class and his 1st experience at Drivers’ Ed. Also the fun he & I had on my first and last TSD rallye (note from author: he was a great driver, scenery was spectacular, and I was not so good of a navigator but he remained calm & patient throughout).
- John Reed – regaled us with many stories about the early days of LPR (Volcano Hotel, Zacconi’s Rule, to mention a few)
- Vince & Christina – the exciting events in LPR in 2003 (Vince was President, Beverly was Treasurer, & Christina was Charity Chairperson) which culminated in them being selected as Family of the Year at the following year’s Porsche Parade in Tampa (during which this author will forever be remembered for asking who the hell is Peter?)
- Lisa – how, at the age of 3, she learned her first swear word from Herb when an unanchored cake flew across the back area of his Porsche. She also talked about how she wished her Dad had enjoyed more good times with LPR and that she & her Mom are so grateful for the camaraderie of the club.
- Bob – told of his trials at getting into the Porsche club (he was looking for a good mechanic & had always dreamed to drive a lap at Laguna Seca) and being assigned, finally, to LPR. He found all he was hoping for and more (in Don Wise, driver’s ed events, and more good times as well as kind, fun friends than he had ever imagined).

Dinner was served with a tasty chicken dish along with bbq ribs and colorful vegetable casseroles. This was quickly followed by coffee and desserts (chocolate cake, lemon w/blueberries cupcakes, and cookies). A few prizes were awarded for humorous &/or heartfelt stories to Lisa, Les, & Bob. President Vince held a brief meeting, presented our hosts, Mary and Dick, with a gift certificate to Applebee’s and then it was time to say “good night”.

As we were leaving, I was telling Dick how much I admired his spacious backyard. He asked if I’d noticed what he’d done to the front one. No, but I couldn’t help but notice those LeMans signs. Being the generous people that they are, the next thing I knew Bob & I were driving home with those mile/kilometer markers! There’s a cute story how they got them, but this article is long enough already!

Thanks, Dick & Mary, for such a cool time on a warm evening!

A favorite milestone for every GTG is when the food is served.

Peter Ridgway appears to be reminding Ken Iles that Jacqueline Shanafelt is spoken for. Jackie seems to be enjoying the moment.

What is this that Lisa Radding is holding... a New Yorker milestone?

Prez. Vince Vincent presents the club's thank you gift card to hosts Mary and Dick Wallace.

Apparently Tour Leader Jim Davis was in good form during the driver's briefing. Bob Morgan, George Jansen, Kathy & Johnny Musser and Virginia Jansen yuk it up!

Tom & Donna Micele and Angie Reed. Tom's already got a plate full of eats. What's Angie holding under the table?

The Garman's with Virginia Jansen, Karen Morgan, and Les Schreiber; wine sophisticates all!

Janet AK and Karen Morgan wistfully gaze at their dream backyard...

Jim Davis is happy his first tour went off without a hitch and it was contagious; Lisa Radding is happy, too!

Karen & Bob Morgan along with Jackie Mitchell break out the consumibles. Hmm, Bob looks kind of unnatural without a beer in his hand.

Family Picnic goes BAD!

... Bad Boyz of BBQ that is!

One of the Bad Boyz at the barbecue.

story by Jacqueline Mitchell

PHOTOS: John Reed

If great food and great company is what you were looking for, you hit the jack-ie pot at our annual LPR Family Picnic!

We did something a bit different at this year's picnic, we let someone else do the cooking! The famous Bad Boyz of BBQ started their career with Oakland Raider tailgate parties, but branched out into catering many other events. They were featured on Diners, Drive-ins, and Dives on the Food Network with Guy Fieri.

The Bad Boyz of BBQ catered two family events for Steve's family on China Beach in San Francisco. They got connected with Steve's family when Kurt, the owner of Bad Boyz, was looking down the wharf in San Francisco for a shellfish company to supply prawns and other fish for the BBQs. He saw one company that had a logo of a clam smoking a cigar. Right away, Kurt thought, "that's the company for me!" Well it turned out that is when the relationship was formed. The food at the family event was so good, I got Kurt's business card. You never know when you might need a good caterer.

So this year the picnic didn't require the hard work of the members to shop, haul, cook, serve and clean-up, along with attendees being asked to bring appetizers, salads, sides and desserts. Our members had the luxury to relax and enjoy the wonderful day at Blackberry Farms. Many members told me how nice it was not to have to bring anything.

We had 60 people attend with 5 kids. I think all the kids enjoyed the pool and some enjoyed playing the bean bag toss with Kevin and me. Kevin tried to get members to engage in the trivia game but people were so engaged in conversation with each other that he couldn't get any takers, except Sue Sickel who threw her hand up right away with excitement when asked who wanted to play. Maybe if he said we had CASH prizes he would have gotten more interest.

Although tri-tip, chicken and salmon were served, I eyeballed a few of the best looking hot dogs on some of the plates. These were NOT Oscar Meyers! I had thought that the caterer just brought a few for our 5 kids that attended. Come to find out, our caterer brought those for his Bad Boyz. Apparently they won't eat the paid food. But there was certainly enough of them.

Please thank the Board members for approving the money to cater this fun event. I especially want to thank Kevin Bennett for planning the games, bringing his handmade bean bag toss board, and bringing the ice and ice chests! AND thank you to Peter Ridgway for bringing the cold beer and wine. These two are my "Bad Boyz"!

Angie Reed, Esper Kershaw and Jennifer Kershaw

George Grialou and Efren Casamina thinkin', "Life is pretty good!"

Tony Vanacore and Ken Iles. Now, with a swimming pool nearby, my best guess is this look from Tony involves a bikini... but then why isn't Ken looking?

Good old Beer Bottle Bob Morgan makes his presence known in the chow line as Barry Pangrle looks on.

Cindy Casamina has never looked so proud!

Kevin Bennett adds another clown to the bean bag target.

Angie Reed makes her point (well, maybe two points) to Dave and Sheila Dunwoodie.

What's with Jim Davis and Lisa Radding? Here they are, so happy together... again!

Old Business

- Membership Directory – Directories have been printed and delivered. The total cost was $460.00
- LPR Financial Task Force Report – The Monies to Members Task Force; Ed Tefankjian, Peter Ridgway, Kathy Musser, John Reed, Anne Roth, Emilie Highley and Kris Vanacore met Tuesday 7/29. The objective of this task force, initially, was given that the club has extra monies in its coffers for 2014, to craft suggestions for ways to enrich club members experiences for the remainder of the year. In addition it was agreed that nothing should be suggested that would need to change Policies and Procedures.
- Task Force Recommendations:
Awards banquet - upgrade meal, provide 2 drink tickets per person, live music, upgrade awards and include certificates (rolled and ribboned) for all nominated, subsidize the per person cost, be given a budget to purchase additional prizes
New member packet and November new member event (with only board and committee members invited along with 2014 new members) Location TBD - New Member Welcome Letter, Recent Prieta Post, new members to be called to encourage event participation
Pizza for board meetings - Club will pay for 2 large pizzas (Treasurer will order) to help sustain those coming directly from work (drinks are on their own). Members will not be asked to donate funds.

- In addition to the above recommendations, the Task Force notes that the Club has already funded approx.. $2040.88 for the Family Picnic, $4600 for the printed Prieta Post and an estimated cost of $460.00 for the Membership Directory this year.....a total of $7100.88.
- With the funds already spent plus the recommendations noted above, the Task Force feels the Club will be sufficiently returning enough of any financial windfalls this year.
- Therefore the Task Force unanimously feels that the July board meeting vote making GTGs, Tours and Tech Sessions free for the remainder of 2014 should be rescinded, with the exception being those events that have already been publicized in the Post or on-line as free. FYI the only GTG, Tour or Tech at this time, publicized without a fee mentioned are the Bennett's Pizza GTG and the Gardnerville Tour.

Motion made by Anne, seconded by Les and approved (4-0, 1 abstention) to rescind the vote of July 1st 2014 for free fees for GTG, Tours and Tech Sessions with the exception of those events already advertised as fee free.

New Business

- Come up with new ideas that are "out of the normal box" to engage new members.
- Membership and Hospitality to work closely together.

Next Board Meeting will be Tuesday, September 2, 2014 at 7 pm at Round Table Pizza, Union and Camden Avenue, San Jose.

Meeting adjourned at 8:20 PM.

Respectfully submitted with many thanks to Kathy Musser,

Christina Vincent, LPR Secretary

Beale Air Force Base Tour

Visit Beale Air Force Base with Les Schreiber and Peter Ridgway on October 10th. We will drive to Yuba City on Thursday, October 9th. At 9 AM on Friday we will meet at the Museum of the Forgotten Warrior just outside Beale AFB, and be bussed during the tour. The tour will finish back at the museum at about 3 PM. The only cost will be lunch on base.

Cameras are permitted, but no backpacks.

Group rates are available at the Hampton Inn in Yuba City at $125 per night for October 9th. Call the Hampton Inn directly at (530)751-1714 and ask for the LPR Group Rate. Reservations must be made by September 9th to receive this rate, and a credit card is required. Cancellations must be made by Wednesday October 1st to avoid penalties.

We will need to submit everyone's name, date of birth and drivers license number for security clearance. All guests must be US citizens and at least 18 years of age. Please send this information to Peter and Les after you make your reservation.

Please RSVP by September 9th. For more details or to RSVP please contact:
