VISTAS

In the January LPR board meeting an issue was raised re expenditures on the Post since the Web Only distribution was abandoned at the end of 2012. A work item was taken to understand costs associated with the Post.

Ultimately Bill Jump dissected all 70 transactions from 2013 through the end of 2015. The key findings are as follows>

MagCloud was initiated as the source of our print distribution of the Post. The unit cost of a 40 page issue has not changed since inception of our engagement with MagCloud. The cost to LPR is comprised of the number of pages in an issue plus US Postal Service shipping to the number of subscribers. The change in cost is solely due to the increasing number of print subscribers. The nominal cost is approximately $8 per issue and the price paid by subscriber is only $1 per issue. There is another cost involved in Post distribution. To communicate Post availability and maintain our distribution list we pay a 3rd party to maintain a distribution list and send an eMail notifying the members of availability of the Post and sending out the Mid Month Blast. PCA National provides $15.50 per year per member which can be used to subsidize the Post or other LPR expenses at board discretion. Our loyal Post advertisers contributed nearly $7,000.00 last year.

The board considered the above and at the February Board of Director's meeting & voted to increase the price paid for a subscription from $12 per year to $36 per year. This increase will be effective 4/1/16 for new subscribers, and 1/1/17 for all subscribers.

Please be reminded that the Post is a national award winning newsletter for our region.

Feel free to contact me on my private email: bobbo408@comcast.net.

Upcoming in March: On March 12 we will share Crock-Pot delights at the home of Ken & June Iles. Rsvp's needed. March 19 is an autocross in Marina, and on the 26th & 27th is the Zone 7 Autocross school. Register on motorsportsreg.com. This is a great way to improve your driving skills! If you don't go to the driving school, come join us on 3/26 for the Campbell Easter Parade.

Above all, have a good time.

Bill's Blurb

January was a light activity month in the land of LPR but that Crow's Nest Tour is really a great fun run. I had arranged with Les Schreiber to ride with him in that great blue 911 of his as my wife had duties to go wedding dress shopping with a granddaughter that day. Before we left I added to my Porsche skill list as Les had me have the attendees sign the PCA waiver sheet. OK- I can do that.

Great drive on the back roads to Santa Cruz and back with Les. There were quite a few brand spanking new LPR award jackets shown off that day. So now we are rocketing off to a ton of activity in March and beyond- GTGs, more tours, AX, AX school, and other Zone and National events. Check out the many flyers in this month's issue for what is coming up.

If you plan to go to the Parade I hope you have made your reservations or you will be sleeping in your Porsche or staying in another state. As I write this it is 17 degrees at this fine resort- its now past midnight there. This is a fine 4 season resort and the Parade should be quite interesting. Oh by the way, there is a note on their website that indicates you can't trust many of the GPS directions. Go here to read it if you are going- either by plane or car >

<http://jaypeakresort.com/about/getting-here/>

Checking this out will save you much grief and aggravation if you are going to Parade. Also, if you have not been to this part of the US in summer I suggest that you will likely encounter mosquitos. I recall a trip to Burlington, Vt (your likely air gateway from the west) in the early 80's to visit our IBM manufacturing plant. There were tons of mosquitos around Lake Champlain at Burlington. Jay Peak is not that far away. Go prepared. I have placed a little photo of some of their winter activities at the bottom of the page.

March is full of road trip distractions- Giants and A's spring training starts in a couple of days, the March Madness of the NCAA is rapidly approaching- just to name a few. I had my annual golf fix at the ATT Pro Am at Pebble Beach and MPCC the week after the Super Bowl- I marshal on both courses. Great weather this year. Tough on the legs and my bad left knee but it's very invigorating and good for the soul.

Congrats to Henry Watts on his 30 years!

IMHO the Post is solvent & sustainable w/o any price changes. Be sure to participate and support LPR. Have a great day and the day after.. And enjoy the Post.

Bill Jump

Ken & June Iles are out to prove that the reputation of LPR as “The Good Time Region” is not a crock... To do so they are asking you to bring a crockpot appetizer, a crockpot side dish or a crock pot main dish. If you don't have a crockpot plan on providing a salad to share. Desserts, water, wine and beer will be provided.

Prizes will be given for the BEST crockpot appetizer, crockpot side dish or crockpot main dish, so get creative!

The portals of Iles Abbey will open at 6 p.m. Parking is very limited so carpool if you can.

The cost will be a mere $10 per person.

RSVP by Thursday, March 10 to Ken or June at 650-941-9038.

The good times can be found at 11670 Winding Way, Los Altos.

Crow's Nest Tour

Story by Jacqueline Shanafelt

Crow's Nest Tour – 2015 version by Jacqueline Shanafelt with translations and commentary by her Peter.

Cher' Amis, le 23 Fevrier nous avons eu la chance d'aller faire une balade dans nos splendide voitures jusqu'a Santa Cruz pour dejeuner. C'etait vraiment agreable et nous etions tous tres contents. Merci a Les d'avoir prevue cette excursion. A bientot.

Jacqueline Translation: Dear friends, on Feb. 23rd we had the good fortune to go for a ride in our wonderful cars, all the way to Santa Cruz for lunch. It was a pleasure to be all together. Thank you to Les for a beautiful trip that we all appreciated. So much for the French connection.

The Crow's Nest tour is what I like to call a Quickie. 38 smooth miles, nice lunch, delightful setting, then home for a nap. With 26 people, 11 cars and the rain gods smiling on us, this was, once again, one of our favorite tours. Not only was the route the same but the same otter from last year was back entertaining us in the harbor. Yeah, I'm sure it was the same otter. His name is Jim. Trust me. The menu was different from last year but just as good. Check out the photo's. They tell the whole story.

The Drive By Steinbeck Gimmick Rallye

Saturday, April 30

Join us for a rallye that will take you on a pleasant drive around the Monterey Bay area, which is renowned for, among other things, being a haunt of one of America's greatest novelists, John Steinbeck. During this event you will drive east of Monterey Bay, see produce rows, travel with Farley, see various habitats of mice and men and, perhaps, experience the gripes of wrath expressed by your rallye partner.

This simple rallye will challenge your powers of observation as you watch for specific things while you traverse an often leisurely route.

Starting point will be Parking Lot A of Monterey Peninsula College at 980 Fremont Street in Monterey. The parking lot has no real address, but is located off of Fishnet Street. Start time is 10:15 a.m. The endpoint will be at the Sea Harvest Restaurant, 2420 Highway 1 in Moss Landing.

The rallye covers less than 50 miles and will officially end at 3 p.m., at which time those interested will have a very late lunch (or very early dinner). Fabulous prizes await the winners of each class.

RSVP by April 22 to Karen Morgan at khmor@comcast.net or (408) 267-8224. Include the number of people in your car. The cost for this event will be $10 for class A: 1-2 persons and $15 for class B: 3+ persons.

Welcome to the two day Zone Autocross School sponsored by Porsche of Livermore.

The event will be held Saturday and Sunday March 26-27 at the Marina Airport, Marina Ca. This event is geared toward drivers with minimal or no experience in autocross. We will concentrate on technical skills on Saturday and spend Sunday applying those skills on the course. The fee for both days is $120.00 and covers lunch, an event tee shirt and a copy of The Secrets of Solo Racing by Henry A. Watts. This event is perfect for couples as the skills being taught will enhance your everyday driving ability as well as increase your competition skills. Having trouble with this?
