POST Positions

Kevin Bennett, Editor

Debbie and I have well over twenty-five years of active participation in LPR's activities. By active participation, I don't mean just attending events, but also hosting, organizing, assisting and, most importantly, participating in directing and managing the club's affairs by serving in Board of Directors and committee chair positions. We are both concerned that 2018 is going to be a seminal year for LPR in that the pool of likely candidates for positions for the Board of Directors for 2019 seems to be uncomfortably small.

If you are interested in keeping LPR going as the vibrant, active PCA region that is represented by its stellar history, please consider stepping forward to help lead us into future glory. If you've never attended a board meeting, come and see what they are about. Talk to some current officers to see if you might be interested in helping. Remember, in LPR especially, it's not just the cars, it's the people... and we need YOU!

Two-Day Autocross School
April 28-29, 2018
Marina Airport in Marina, CA

Sponsored by:

PORSCHE
Porsche Monterey

This exciting event is hosted by Zone 7 Porsche Club of America. It is designed for people new to autocrossing. If you have wondered what it is like to experience driving your Porsche on the edge (but safely in control) then this is for YOU!

Saturday we will concentrate on basic driving techniques by doing driving and braking exercises. On Sunday you will learn how to work and drive a typical PCA autocross course. Elements from Saturday's exercises will be included in the course. Two people can share a car as half the students drive and half work, watch, and learn, then drivers switch places.

The event is limited to PCA members. The cost is $120 per person and includes lunch, an event T-shirt, a copy of "Secrets of Solo Racing" by Henry A. Watts, and two days of instruction from the best and most experienced autocross instructors in the US.

Registration opens March 1, 2018 on line at www.motorsportReg.com PCA-Zone 7 Autocross School

The school is limited to 50 students. For more info contact:

John Seidell at johnseid@astound.net or Howard Yao at howard@aberrance.com

Left: John Reed looks as if he is going to punch Susan George as Tom Geary rather passively looks on. Use your words, John.

Right: Ron and Michelle Castle, members of GGR, joined our band of Porsche stalwarts on the club's annual pilgrimage to the Crow's Nest.

Right: Cindy & Efren Casamina, Doris Britschgi and Janet Au Krug looking forward to the day's drive.

2018 Begins with Broken Records! The Crow's Nest Tour

Broken records, what a way to start the New Year! The Crow's Nest tour had the most participants of any tour ever. There were 53 attendees, from 4 different regions. From LPR were John & Angie Reed, Janet Au Krug, Kevin & Debbie (and Farley) Bennett, Russ & Doris Britschgi, Dave & Shelia Brown, Jim & Jen Bryant, Efren & Cindy Casamina, Sung Chang, John & Honore D'Angelo, Gary Goelkel, Ken & Margie Jensen, Steve & Jill Harper, Hal & Diana Hallock, Ken & June Iles, Les Nishimura, Jim and Lin Metz, Michel & Patrice Noury, Barry & Suzette Pangrle, Pete & Diane Seimens, Mike Zampiceni.

Ron & Michelle Castle, as well as George & Carol Grialou joined us from GGR. Carol Dixon and her daughter joined us from Diablo region as well as Susie George & Tom Geary.

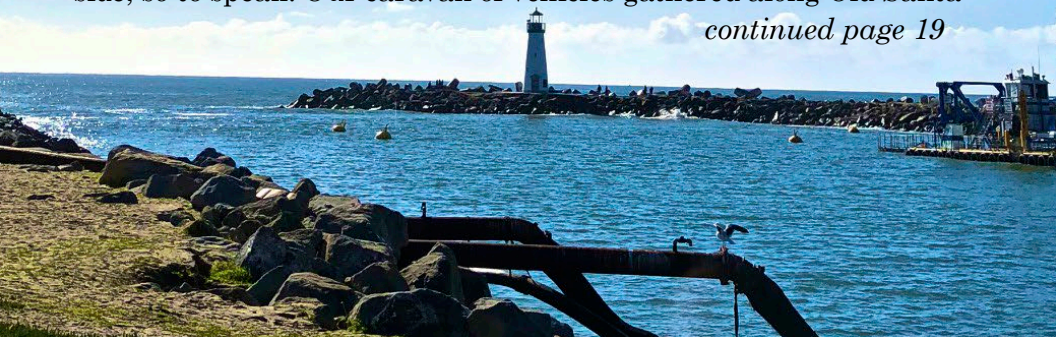

Our numbers included some firsts. LPR's Bruce & Carol Moe came on their first tour. Jean Francois Bulycz on his first LPR tour transferred into LPR from the Connecticut Valley Region. For their first event John and Denise Zaremba, from the Palmetto Region in Florida joined us for lunch. Bob and Deb Frosthalm, and Charlie and Inga Palmer joined us for lunch at the Crow's Nest, too.

Meeting at King's Corner in Los Gatos, we were finally off! It was a beautiful and sunny morning and a great way to start off our first tour of 2018. Thank you, Mother Nature!

I should say most of us were off to a good start. We were supposed to turn after five streets to get to the on-ramp for the Hwy 17. Oops, some of us messed up. Ken and I waved to Ken and June Iles at the bank, as we realized, we had missed the turn. Apparently, Ken and I need practice counting to five.

Ken and I knew another on ramp, and met everyone on the other side, so to speak. Our caravan of vehicles gathered along Old Santa Right: Lin Mietz, Diana & Hal Hallock raise their glasses of... apple juice? to toast the tour.

Left: Kevin Bennett meets Honore and John D'Angelo for the first time. They ended up sitting together for lunch, too.

Right: You don't have to be a Sherlock Holmes to deduce from this image that there is a drivers meeting going on.

Left: Charlie and Inga Palmer joined our little band of adventurers for lunch in the sunny, seaside Nest.

Left: This sort of thing used to signify some sort of mechanical failure.

Kudos to Porsche engineering that it usually now just signifies awaiting the arrival of stragglers before continuing the tour.

Right: Sung Chang and Les Nishimura, both with crossed arms - defensive body language which can signify disagreement with the opinions of others.

There was no yelling, so, gladly, they must not have been on politics.

Right: Ever wonder if these California backroads enjoy being used by us as much as we enjoy using them?

Right: Debbie Bennett works the room after her meal. She looks like she might be doing a magic trick, but it's probably just Indian sign language. Whatever it is, Russ Britschgi is hoping she moves on soon.

Left: You can tell that Jean-Francois Bulycz is on the prowl with his camera as he provides this very car oriented image.

Right: Two relative newcomers to LPR: John D'Angelo is the Zone Concours Chairman and has already put on the Toys for Tots December Tour, and Jean-Francois Bulycz, an immigrant from Connecticut Region who is already providing photos to the POST.

Left: Efren Casamina proves that there is always time to stop and smell the flower.

Cruz Hwy. to enable everyone to catch up. At this time I discovered that a number of others also used alternative routes to get to this gathering point. All present and accounted for, we left the freeway noise behind and headed for a beautiful tunnel of redwood trees.

Old Santa Cruz Highway is a lovely wooded road and a perfect curvy delight for our Porsche drivers. This is the first time that we hadn't passed a lot of bike riders, tree pruners and the like. The road was blissfully unimpeded with only one bike rider to be reckoned with. A stop sign was at the top of the hill and we turned left onto to Summit Road.

Summit is a gently winding road that is lined by bucolic farms. The grape vines and wineries added to the lovely scenery. Before long we reached Old San Jose Road. Country estates turned into cottages and houses. Soquel Blvd. approached. We turned right and then left onto 41st Street. Stomachs rumbling, we knew lunch was coming soon.

At the Crow's Nest, we entered our dining area. Large picture windows gave us a view of the harbor and agile surfers in the distance. Beverages served, we had a choice of Charbroiled Chicken Breast, Seafood Thermidor, Hawaiian Mahi Mahi or Butternut Ravioli. Pleasant conversations, beautiful views and our 1st tour of the year ended as a resounding success.

The tour group had exclusive use of this room with a terrific view of the harbor. It was a thoroughly enjoyable afternoon, though nobody went surfing.

END OF AN ERA

EASY Closed

By Steve Douglas

EASY, aka; European Auto Salvage Yard has been one of best places to find Porsche parts for 40 years. Jim Breazeale opened the shop in 1978, in Emeryville, back when there were lots of wrecked and unloved Porsche to find. Back then you could buy a 356 for a few hundred dollars, find parts in wrecking yards, and find people to work on them. In the early '70s, new parts for 356s were not readily available from the dealerships, there was no internet, no eBay and very few other shops specialized in old Porsche parts. Jim's knowledge of what will work, what is correct and where to find things has helped countless Porsche owners with their repairs and restorations.

In more recent years, the supply of parts cars and stashes of good parts have become harder to find as the cars once thought of as junk are now being restored. EASY started to stock the more available parts cars: 914s, 924/944/968s, and 911s.

When Jim announced that he was going to retire and sell the building, everybody wondered what was going to happen to the parts. Rod and Gary Emory have agreed to take the parts for their inventory at Parts Obsolete in Oregon and Emory Motorsports in North Hollywood .

The EASY sponsored Coffee and Cars, and Donuts semi-monthly event has been going on for a number of years on the 1st and 3rd Saturdays, 9 a.m. to noon of most months. It has grown into a huge gathering with enthusiasts for all models Porsches, and many Porsche oriented groups represented. Some attendees travelled long distances just to hang out in Harlan Street for an EASY Saturday morning. The February 3rd gathering was the last one that EASY will sponsor and host, and as a fitting tribute, there were hundreds of Porsches and lots of EASY fans to say farewell. Cars started arriving at 8 a.m., and by 8:30 the street was filled with 3 lines of Porsches. By 9:30 cars filled most of the surrounding blocks and were still coming in.

Thank you, Jim, wife Linda,
